Competitions/Prizes

Prizes will be awarded to third place in each class. A pair's competition will be run concurrently with the main competition, split into two classes ("Open" & "B, C & D"). There will be a concurrent "Open" Club Team of 3 competition.

Prizes will be awarded for first and second places for the Pairs, Teams, Ladies, Veterans and Junior Events.

The presentation of prizes will take place as soon as possible after the end of the last detail. In addition, a prize will be awarded on completion of each detail to the top score for that detail.

Refreshments

A selection of snacks along with tea and coffee will be available for purchase in the clubroom.

The firing points are fully covered but be prepared for wet weather.

Toilet facilities are provided off the clubroom.

Rules

The meeting will be run under NSRA rules unless otherwise stated. The range committee will settle any disputes and their decision will be final. There will be no equipment check.

The range committee reserve the right to reclassify any competitor whose declared average appears to be incorrect.

Ties will be decided by X's then count-back (ten shots at a time) As ISSF rules

Challenges to scores will be considered on payment of £10.00. This will be refunded if the challenge is upheld. No challenges will be accepted more than ten minutes after the final scores are posted after the last detail on the Sunday.

You are reminded that you are responsible for the security and safety of your equipment and firearm at all times. Rifles should be kept locked in the boot of your car when not in use. Neither Torfaen Rifle Club nor Long Ashton Rifle Club will accept liability for the loss or damage to any competitor or visitors property during their visit to the range.

Breech flags must be in place or bolts must be removed from actions at all times other than when in the shooting position on the firing point. The action should only be closed when the rifle is in the shoulder in the shooting position regardless of loading technique.

Completed entry forms together with full payment or Bank Transfer and email address for Squadding and Results notice should be sent to:
